

Type D2SWP : Product Code Change

Modification Notification of Product Code Change due to production control factory of change of D2SWP Sealed Subminiature Basic Switch series.

Product Change

Dear Distributors,

We write to advise that there will be changes in the D2SW-P series as mentioned in the attachment. This product change involves only the transfer of quality/testing responsibility from Japan to China. There is NO change of production location, as this will remain exactly the same.

Please make any necessary modifications required for your Purchasing Systems to accept the new Product Codes as advised in the attachment under 'Details of applicable model'.

If you are not the correct person who is responsible for such changes in your Purchasing Systems, please forward this email to the correct person or department.

Omron Electronic Components will assume your organization has accepted the proposed changes if we do not receive your official response within 6 weeks after sending this notification.

For any further information or any questions regarding this announcement, please contact either your local Sales Representative or Omron Electronic Components HQ at the following email address: info-components@eu.omron.com.

Should you wish to unsubscribe from receiving Production Change Notifications from OCB-EU, please reply to this email with the comments "UNSUBSCRIBE PCN" in the subject header.

Many thanks for your attention and continued support.

Sincerely,

Omron Electronic Components Europe B.V.

THIS ANNOUNCEMENT IS SENT FROM OMRON ELECTRONIC COMPONENTS EUROPE BV. IT IS RELATED ONLY TO SALES IN EUROPE, MIDDLE EAST, AFRICA AND RUSSIA
